WELCOME TO
ALBERTA, CANADA

Alberta is one of the most breathtaking places on earth, as vast as it is varied in landscape and experiences. Located in Western Canada, our province is bordered by the spectacular Canadian Rocky Mountains to the west and rolling prairies and badlands to the east. We share our northern border with the Northwest Territories and to the south, an international peace park with the state of Montana.

Explore our UNESCO World Heritage Sites and the many parks and wildlands that protect the bounty of wildlife that make this place their home. Return to urban centres bustling with arts, culture, shopping, fine dining and accommodation to suit all tastes and budgets.

Places to go, things to do. Discover for yourself what Alberta’s famous western hospitality is all about.

(remember to breathe)
So many places to visit in Alberta! Will it be the Canadian Rockies on our western border, the high ranch country and rolling prairies to the south, boreal forests and rushing rivers to the north or the mysterious Canadian Badlands stretching east and south? Why not all of the above?

In this section, learn about the various regions around the province including local attractions, festivals and events, as well as must-see highlights. We’ve included a few road trips to get your motor running.

Remember to visit travelalberta.com for lots more information.

Dinosaur Provincial Park
Alberta’s Canadian Rocky Mountains have it all – dazzling peaks, lush alpine meadows, turquoise lakes, virgin forests and wildlife galore. Feed your wanderlust in Jasper, Banff and Waterton Lakes national parks, and in the vast playground of the front ranges known as Kananaskis Country.

Pick your season and hike, bike, paddle, golf, raft, ride, ski, skate, dogsled or snowshoe your way through some of the most spectacular scenery on the planet. While you don’t need a pass for a provincial park, you will need one for our national parks, which can be purchased at park entrances or online (see page 116).

After a full day of adventures, relax and rejuvenate while enjoying all that our alpine towns of Banff, Canmore, Lake Louise, Jasper and Waterton have to offer. Let the mountains heal your soul.

BANFF NATIONAL PARK

The elements that make the Canadian Rockies a year-round dream destination converge in perfect harmony in Banff National Park. Two years after railway workers stumbled upon a series of hot springs, Banff was established as Canada’s first national park in 1885.

Explore more than 1,600 km (1,000 mi) of maintained trails on foot, by bicycle or on horseback. Paddle through the crystal clear turquoise waters of glacier-fed lakes and watch for wildlife. Have a picnic in an alpine meadow strewn with wildflowers or climb to the top of a soaring peak. Come back in winter and ski some of the finest powder anywhere. Inside the park, the town of Banff and hamlet of Lake Louise have all the amenities, everything you need to enhance your stay.

pc.gc.ca/banff
LAKE MINNEWANKA
Explore the largest lake in the park, just 15 minutes from the Banff townsite. Walk or cycle the trails around the lake, take a boat cruise or enjoy a picnic on the shore.

SKIING
Not many national parks have ski resorts tucked inside. Banff National Park has three: Sunshine Village, Mount Norquay and Lake Louise Ski Resort. These are consistently ranked as some of the best places to ski in Canada.

VIA FERRATA & SUMMER CHAIRLIFT
Even novice climbers can scale the rock walls of Mount Norquay guided by a series of cables, anchors and ladders on the Via Ferrata (Italian for Iron Road). The 10-minute North American chairlift ride takes you high above the clouds to enjoy beautiful views. Savour a meal in the restored tea house after your climb.

HIGHLIGHTS

BANFF GONDOLA
Ride to the top of Sulphur Mountain and take in the breathtaking views. Surrounded by six mountain ranges, see the townsite of Banff nestled far below. Take a short hike along the walkway to Sanson’s Peak and watch for wildlife.

BANFF UPPER HOT SPRINGS
No trip to Banff National Park is complete without a soak in the restorative waters of the Banff Upper Hot Springs. Visitors from around the world have been coming to “take in the waters” for decades.

CAVE AND BASIN NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE
This iconic landmark commemorates the 1883 discovery of the hot springs that led to the creation of Canada’s national park system. Take the Discovery Tour and learn more about their natural and cultural history.

LAKE LOUISE GONDOLA
In summer, take the Lake Louise Gondola to an elevation of 2,088 m (6,850 ft) and watch for grizzly bears below. At the top, there are a number of easy to intermediate hikes.
JASPER NATIONAL PARK

World Heritage Site

The largest of our Canadian Rockies national parks, Jasper covers almost 11,000 sq km (4,247 sq mi) of mostly untouched alpine wilderness. It is also the world’s second largest dark sky preserve.

Directly north of Banff National Park, Jasper is linked via the iconic Icefields Parkway, where you can see more than 100 ancient glaciers along the way.

The park is a year-round playground – find the perfect camping spot, ride or hike the extensive trail system, paddle a pristine lake and watch for an abundance of wildlife. Wander through gorges sculpted by powerful waterfalls. Come back in winter to see them in their frozen splendour. Then cross-country ski, snowshoe or skate across an outdoor pond. Ski Marmot Basin, 30 minutes from the town of Jasper, where warm hospitality awaits.

COLUMBIA ICEFIELD, ATHABASCA GLACIER
About 90 minutes south of Jasper, explore the Athabasca Glacier, part of the colossal Columbia Icefield. At the Glacier Discovery Centre, board a massive Ice Explorer bus with giant rubber wheels and ride right up onto the glacier.

GLACIER SKYWALK
A five-minute bus ride from the Glacier Discovery Centre is one truly remarkable viewing opportunity. Glacier Skywalk is a feat of engineering cantilevered over the Sunwapta Valley. The fully accessible cliff-edge walkway leads to a glass-floored observation platform 280 m (918 ft) above the valley floor.

JASPER SKYTRAM
Take the longest and highest guided aerial tramway in Canada and get ready for an astonishing 360 degree view of the surrounding mountain ranges, with the Athabasca River and the town of Jasper nestled at your feet.

MALIGNE CANYON
Ten minutes south of Jasper, Maligne Canyon is one of the most spectacular gorges, plunging to depths of over 50 m (165 ft). Come back in winter and do the famed canyon ice walk. If you are an ice climber, the sky’s the limit.

MARMOT BASIN
Ski Canada’s highest base elevation at 1,697 m (5,568 ft), with 914 m (3,000 ft) of vertical drop. Terrain is suitable for novices to experts. Ski and snowboard November to May and enjoy some of the most breathtaking, unspoiled views in the Canadian Rockies.

MIETTE HOT SPRINGS
Inside the park in the wild Fiddle Valley about an hour northeast of Jasper are the hottest mineral springs in the Rockies, cooled to a comfortable temperature of 40 C (104 F) as they enter the hot springs pool. After a good soak, take the short walk to the source of the springs.

SPIRIT ISLAND ON MALIGNE LAKE
Spirit Island is one of the most photographed spots on the planet. Find out why on a boat tour of Maligne Lake, just 44 km (27 mi) south of Jasper. The easiest way to get there is by shuttle bus from town. Watch for wildlife on the way there.
KANANASKIS COUNTRY

A vast playground of over 50 interconnected provincial parks and recreation areas, Kananaskis Country covers 4,257 sq km (1,643 sq mi) of the front ranges of the Canadian Rockies.

Just an hour west of Calgary and a short distance from Banff National Park, K-Country, as it is known by the locals, offers some of the best hiking, horseback trails and whitewater rafting in summer, and cross-country skiing and snowshoeing in winter.

Excellent trails radiate from the alpine town of Canmore. Particularly popular is the Grassi Lakes hike. And a tour of Grotto Canyon is a must, summer or winter. Hire a guide and climb to the top of a mountain, fly high above them all on a heli-tour or go deep beneath on a cave and cavern tour.

BOW VALLEY PROVINCIAL PARK
At the junction of the Bow and Kananaskis rivers, Bow Valley Provincial Park covers over 30 sq km (11.6 sq mi). Expect the best of outdoor adventures here: hiking, whitewater rafting, windsurfing, camping, horseback riding and in winter, cross-country skiing, dog sledding and snowshoeing.

CANMORE NORDIC CENTRE PROVINCIAL PARK
Designed for the 1988 Winter Olympics, this remains one of the top cross-country ski destinations in the world. Nordic skiers enjoy the challenges of 65 km (37 mi) of groomed and track-set trails. Mountain bikers flock here in summer, and fat bike in winter, with over 100 km (62 mi) of trails to explore.

FORTRESS MOUNTAIN
About an hour from Calgary, Fortress Mountain is exclusively for small group cat skiing. Average snowfall of 8-11 m (26-36 ft) means the chances of virgin runs are more than good.

NAKISKA MOUNTAIN RESORT
Nakiska is the closest mountain to Calgary for downhill skiing, just 45 minutes west. It was developed for the alpine events of the 1988 Winter Olympics. You’ll find a variety of terrain for novice, intermediate and advanced skiers.

PETER LOUGHEED PROVINCIAL PARK
Towerimg mountains, pristine lakes, evergreen valleys and glacial streams – this is an area of striking wilderness contrasts. Campgrounds offer a variety of amenities from rustic walk-in tenting to pull-through trailer sites and backcountry camping.

SHEEP RIVER PROVINCIAL PARK
Hike to the pretty Sheep River Falls and watch for wildlife in this protected habitat for bighorn sheep. Camp, fish, mountain bike or ride on horseback to remote Bluerock. In winter, ice skate at Sandy McNabb Campground.

SPRAY VALLEY PROVINCIAL PARK
Hiking trails take you to scenic heights and great backcountry camping. Canoe, kayak or fish for trout in summer. Ice fish in winter. Cross-country ski or mountain bike at Mount Shark. The park is home to Mount Engadine Lodge and a biathlon range.
WATERTON LAKES NATIONAL PARK

The smallest of our mountain parks is impressive in its own right. Nowhere else in the world will you find a World Heritage Site, an international peace park, a dark sky park and a biosphere reserve all rolled into one.

Shaped over centuries by wind, fire, glacial ice and floods, this unusual collision of ecosystems is home to rare plants and animals not found anywhere else in Alberta. Photographers, birdwatchers and botanists gather here for good reason.

Watch for bighorn sheep, mountain goats, elk, deer and black bear. Take a boat cruise across an international border on Upper Waterton Lake, the deepest lake in the Canadian Rockies. The village of Waterton at water’s edge has all the amenities – not to mention its very own waterfall.

PRINCE OF WALES HOTEL NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE
Perched on a bluff above Waterton Lake, the park’s most recognized landmark was constructed in 1926-27 and is a grand survivor of the golden age of railway resort development. The panoramic view from the dining room goes perfectly with traditional high tea.

UPPER WATERTON LAKE
Cruise the shoreline of the deepest lake in the Canadian Rockies and cross the US/Canada border to Goat Haunt, Montana. Water shuttles cross the lake daily to Crypt Landing, gateway to one of the park’s most rewarding day hikes.

WATERTON-GLACIER INTERNATIONAL PEACE PARK
The world’s first peace park combines Waterton Lakes National Park and Montana’s Glacier National Park. It was awarded the World Heritage Site designation because of its distinctive climate, topography and wide variety of plants and wildlife, some not found elsewhere in North America.

DARK SKY PARK
Waterton Lakes and Glacier National Parks are also now designated as an International Dark Sky Park, the first between two countries. Gaze at the Big Dipper, Orion the Hunter, catch a glimpse of aurora borealis or take in a dark sky theatre program.

WATERTON IN WINTER
Take a guided interpretative walk and learn about avalanches, the magic of snow crystals and the amazing adaptations birds and mammals make to live in Waterton through winter. Great for all ages!
LOCAL COMMUNITIES

BANFF AND LAKE LOUISE
Surrounded by rugged peaks, the town of Banff has all the amenities. Banff Avenue offers superb shopping and nightlife, with restaurants featuring some of the top chefs in the country. The hamlet of Lake Louise is minutes from the lake for which it is named. Stay at a mountain lodge, chalet or hotel and make it your home base for hiking and skiing.

Waterton Wildlife Weekend
Scanning the road ahead, we pull over and come to a full stop. The view is breathtaking, but that’s not the reason. A group of bighorn sheep is partly blocking the roadway. And they do indeed have big horns! They also have the right of way so we snap some photos with the zoom lens and keep our distance until we can resume our journey.

In the heart of the Canadian Rockies, the stretch of highway from Lake Louise to Jasper connecting Banff and Jasper national parks is known as the Icefields Parkway. It is truly one of the most gorgeous drives in the world with jaw-dropping scenery punctuated by more than 100 ancient glaciers, waterfalls cascading from dramatic rock spires and turquoise lakes set in sweeping valleys. Along the way, watch for mountain goats, deer, elk, grizzly and black bears. Oh, and bighorn sheep.

There are so many places where you can pull over to take photos or find a trailhead for a short or longer hike. Don’t rush this one – it’s easy to spend an entire day, or even two, to make the most of this trip.
Start your journey in Lake Louise, about 40 minutes west of Banff. Pick up the Icefields Parkway (Hwy 93) and drive north for 34.5 km (21 mi) to see the mighty Crowfoot Glacier.

Next up is the Bow Lake viewpoint where you can get an excellent shot of Num-Ti-Jah Lodge across the lake.

The next fabulous photo op is Peyto Lake, a few minutes further north. Take the 10-minute walk to the viewpoint. It’s the highest elevation on the Parkway.

Continue north for about an hour and a quarter and you’re into the vast Columbia Icefield straddling the Continental Divide.

You’ll want to make a stop at the Glacier Discovery Centre and board an Ice Explorer bus that takes you right up onto the Athabasca Glacier, where you can walk on ice up to 300 m (985 ft) thick.

Then take a shuttle bus to nearby Glacier Skywalk, a daring cliff-edge walkway cantilevered 280 m (918 ft) out over the Sunwapta Valley. Guaranteed to take your breath away.

Continue north 113 km (70 mi) and at the junction of Hwy 93 and 93A, pull into the Athabasca Falls Viewpoint to see the most powerful of the area’s many waterfalls.

In another 45 minutes you’ll arrive in the town of Jasper, where a whole new world of adventure awaits.
Overlooking Barrier Lake, my friend sputters with excitement. He waves his binoculars and shouts, “A grizzly bear! It’s a grizzly bear!” Sure enough, a huge bear with the distinct grizzly hump on its shoulders is clambering up a velvety patch of alpine glade.

We came prepared with bear spray, noisemakers and the common sense to be bear aware in Kananaskis Country, but the grizzly is a long way off and headed in the opposite direction. Still, what a thrill!

There’s more wildlife to see as we head into the front ranges of the Canadian Rockies. The birder in our group has his eyes peeled for red-tailed hawks, osprey and golden eagles, and his ears cocked for the trill of the ruby-crowned kinglet or Swainson’s thrush.

Our first stop is the new Kananaskis Nordic Spa at the recently renovated and renamed Pomeroy Kananaskis Mountain Lodge in Kananaskis Village. A first-of-its-kind Canadian alpine interpretation of the Scandinavian tradition, it offers campfires, three types of saunas, a series of hot, saltwater and cold plunge pools, exfoliation cabin, massage and many comfy spots to meditate, relax or indulge in a healthy bite or sip.

We snuggle into our cozy red tartan robes and curl up in heated lounge chairs to wait for our treatments. We emerge relaxed, restored and ready to tackle the next leg of our Kananaskis adventure.
From Calgary, head west on the Trans-Canada (Hwy 1) about an hour to the Kananaskis Trail (Hwy 40) turnoff.

Go south on Hwy 40 for 8 km (5 mi) to Barrier Lake and do all or part of the easy 10 km (6 mi) hike around the lake. Gorgeous!

Continue south to Kananaskis Village, rent a bike, hit the paved trails or treat yourself to lunch at one of many all-new culinary experiences at the Pomeroy Kananaskis Mountain Lodge.

If you like golf, plan ahead and stop for a round at the Kananaskis Country Golf Course. Its two newly restored Mt. Lorette and Mt. Kidd 18-hole courses feature awe-inspiring views and lush fairways framed by glacier-fed creeks and the cascading Kananaskis river. Sip a cool one on the renovated clubhouse’s new patio and watch for more wandering wildlife.

When you’re ready to leave Kananaskis Village, head south on Hwy 40 for about 30 km (19 mi) to the turnoff for the Smith-Dorrien Spray Trail (secondary Hwy 742, gravel). Follow it north for the same distance.

Turn left onto Mt. Shark Road where you can stop for tea at secluded Mount Engadine Lodge.

Back on Hwy 742, head north again for 40 km (25 mi) to Canmore and enjoy all this vibrant alpine town has to offer.
There’s something for everyone in this dynamic part of the province – the crackle of the big city, the charm of classic western towns, outdoor adventures galore in the foothills and the splendour of golden prairies under an endless sky.

Bursting with an ever-changing array of attractions, Calgary is a youthful city buzzing with vitality. Devour its great food, entertainment, shopping and thriving music and theatre scene.

Then see how Calgarians experience their own backyard. Less than an hour due west, you’re in the front ranges of the Canadian Rockies in Kananaskis Country where hiking, horseback riding and whitewater rafting await.

Follow the Cowboy Trail (Hwy 22) from Cochrane south through high ranch country to Turner Valley, Black Diamond and Longview. Poke through galleries featuring traditional and contemporary western art.

LOCAL COMMUNITIES

AIRDRIE
Just 20 km (12 mi) north of Calgary is the vibrant community of Airdrie. Take in the Airdrie Pro Rodeo, one of the top 10 rodeos in Canada. Check out the miniature railway at Iron Horse Park. Scour the antique shops, or “visit life in the past lane” at the Nose Creek Valley Museum.

BRAGG CREEK
Just 30 km (19 mi) west of Calgary, picturesque Bragg Creek is close to hiking, biking, camping and whitewater rafting. Check out some excellent bakeries, fine restaurants and western themed shopping. See who’s playing at one of the town’s performing arts venues. Come in December for the Spirit of Christmas festival.

COCHRANE
Cochrane is 20 minutes west of Calgary’s city limits and steeped in rich ranching history. Stroll along the Bow River pathways and then treat yourself to homemade ice cream at the third generation MacKay’s Ice Cream on Main Street. Cochrane’s artistic heart beats strong – check out its many galleries and studios.

HIGH RIVER
This historical western town has been featured in several film and television productions, including the series Heartland and Fargo. Grab a map to tour film locations. Learn about the region’s history at the High River Agricultural Museum and Sheppard Family Park homestead and hear cowboy poets in October at the Trail’s End Gathering. The Highwood River is well-known for its fly fishing and there are world-class birdwatching opportunities at Frank Lake.

STRATHMORE
Located along the Trans-Canada (Hwy 1), the town was a key destination for the pioneers who rode the Canadian Pacific Railway to settle the new west. Be sure to be here for Strathmore Heritage Days, featuring the third largest pro rodeo in Canada, with $250,000 in prize money.

CALGARY IN 24 HOURS

A dynamic mix of big city energy, cheerful western hospitality and wondrous natural beauty, Calgary has something for everyone. Start one of your days here with breakfast downtown at a café on historic Stephen Avenue Walk, Calgary’s pedestrian mall.

Cross over the Peace Bridge and stroll along the Bow River Pathway – connected to the most extensive network in North America. Stop along the way in Kensington Village to browse shops or grab a raw food smoothie.

Prefer the indoors? Delve into western history at the Glenbow Museum downtown or explore the overlap of science, art and technology at TELUS Spark science centre.

Have lunch at a rotating restaurant at the top of the Calgary Tower, 155 m (508 ft) above the city. Take a 360 degree multi-media tour of the observation deck and learn about Calgary’s past.

Now head to St. Patrick’s Island Park in the East Village. Stroll the boardwalk over naturalized wetlands or catch an event at the amphitheatre. Not far is Fort Calgary or the Calgary Zoo.

Or, if music is your thing, visit the National Music Centre in its new home at Studio Bell. Explore five floors of exhibits celebrating the power of Canada’s music story.

Time for dinner? It’s a short hop to historic Inglewood, Calgary’s oldest neighbourhood and home to an eclectic mix of boutiques, pubs, live music and fine dining.

Spend the evening listening to jazz or blues at a local club or catch a performance downtown at Arts Commons, a multi-venue centre for music, theatre and dance.
CALGARY CULINARY ADVENTURES

The food scene in Calgary is innovative and adventurous. Top chefs offer a smorgasbord of culinary experiences using locally sourced ingredients – from our famous Alberta beef to wild boar, ranch elk and ostrich.

Many neighbourhoods boast eclectic cafés, bistro and pubs – Bridgeland, Kensington, Inglewood, Marda Loop, The Beltline and 17 Avenue, to name a few. Or choose from casual, upscale and ethnic offerings along Fourth Street in Mission, known by the locals as Restaurant Row. Watch for YYCFOODTRUCKS bringing street food culture to community events. Wander on your own or book with Calgary Food Tours.

Weekend breakfasts at Edmonton Trail diners regularly have line-ups around the block. Or head to Chinatown for traditional dim sum.

The city has some of Canada’s top craft breweries, so sip a crisp Alberta beer at lunch, while enjoying gourmet burgers or charcuterie platters featuring fresh local fixings.

Speaking of fresh, area farmers are producing delectable edibles year round. Load up at all-year farmers’ markets like the Calgary Farmers’ Market, Crossroads Market and The Market on Macleod.

No culinary adventure would be complete without taking a cooking class. Book one at the Cookbook Co. Cooks or SAIT’s downtown culinary campus. From basic bread making to exotic Thai, both feature top chefs.

Hungry again? End the day with fine dining at one of many restaurants led by nationally and internationally acclaimed chefs attracting attention from shows like You Gotta Eat Here, Top Chef Canada and Chopped.

Don’t forget to attend one of Calgary’s festivals for foodies – Taste of Calgary, Big Taste Calgary and BBQ on the Bow.
Imagine moving through rolling foothills, wide open prairies and stunning badlands – all in the course of a day. Sound like something out of a movie? It could very well be – southern Alberta vistas are favourite locations for Hollywood filmmakers. You’ll find two of Alberta’s five World Heritage Sites here: Dinosaur Provincial Park and Head-Smashed-In Buffalo Jump.

To the east, the prairies suddenly drop away to reveal a world of multicoloured canyons and chimneys of weathered rock known as hoodoos. These Canadian Badlands are home to the world’s largest deposits of dinosaur bones.

Sharing the border with Saskatchewan is Cypress Hills Interprovincial Park, the only one of its kind in Canada. Near Alberta’s southern border lies Writing-on-Stone Provincial Park, sacred to First Nations for thousands of years.

Dinosaur Provincial Park

Picture the Canadian Badlands as a subtropical paradise filled with towering redwoods, palm trees and giant ferns surrounding a vast inland sea, just as it was 75 million years ago. Now imagine the giant beasts that flourished here.

Today, this place is home to the highest concentration of late Cretaceous period fossils in the world, one of the reasons why Dinosaur Provincial Park has been designated a World Heritage Site. To date, dozens of dinosaur species have been unearthed and more than 300 specimens grace museums around the world.

There’s plenty to do here. Start with a bus tour of the park and decide what you want to do next. Go with a palaeontologist and take a behind-the-scenes guided tour to an active dig site to hunt for dinosaur bones. Book ahead!

WRITING-ON-STONE PROVINCIAL PARK

In the Milk River valley, 100 km (62 mi) southeast of Lethbridge, is Writing-on-Stone Provincial Park and National Historic Site. This special place contains the largest collection of rock art on the North American plains. Petroglyphs and pictographs carved and painted on sandstone walls record the history of the Blackfoot and Shoshone. Book a tour with First Nations interpreters. Near the river, indulge in comfort camping, Canadian style.

CYPRRESS HILLS PROVINCIAL PARK

Astride the border of Alberta and Saskatchewan is the only interprovincial park in Canada. The highest spot between the Canadian Rockies and Labrador, it sits on a plateau 1,465 m (4,806 ft) above sea level at its highest point. In summer, explore the extensive mountain biking trail system and watch for wildlife. Stay to waterski, swim or flop on the beach at Elkwater Lake. In winter, head to Hidden Valley ski resort, complete with terrain park.

In Alberta’s Porcupine Hills, Head-Smashed-In Buffalo Jump is the oldest and best preserved of its kind in North America. It stands as a testimonial to the way of life of the Plains People, who for thousands of years drove the buffalo off the high cliffs to sustain their tribes. Tour the interpretive centre, hike with a Blackfoot guide, experience First Nations culture through stories, drumming and dancing.
ROYAL TYRRELL MUSEUM

Make plans to spend the better part of a day – or even two! Just 10 minutes from Drumheller, this world-class facility houses one of the largest displays of dinosaur skeletons on the planet. Learn why they call their T-Rex Black Beauty. Stay for a family sleepover and snore with the dinosaurs in Dinosaur Hall. Go on a genuine guided archaeological dig. You’ll be coming back for more.

The Cowboy Trail takes you on a journey through the heart of the old west. The trail starts in the north at Mayerthorpe, west of Edmonton, and winds south on Hwy 22 through the high ranch country flanking the front ranges of the Canadian Rockies all the way to Cardston near the United States border. You can spend several days exploring this route, which covers 735 km (457 mi).

This trip focuses on the section from Cochrane, west of Calgary, south to Longview – easily done in a day.

- From Calgary, head west on Hwy 1A to Cochrane, 36 km (22 mi). A few minutes before you get there, you’ll see signage for Glenbow Ranch Provincial Park. Definitely worth a stop and a walk to take in the sweeping views of the Bow Valley.

- In Cochrane, stroll Main Street with its old fashioned store fronts, shops and cafés. Cochrane is famous for its MacKay’s Ice Cream. Walk off that triple chocolate cone along the footpaths that border the Bow River or hike up the hill to see the life-size iron statue of rider and horse, the pride of the town.
Head south on Hwy 22 for about 30 minutes to Bragg Creek, home to fine restaurants and interesting shops. The town is on the edge of Kananaskis Country and there are plenty of trails for hiking, mountain biking and horseback riding.

Continue south 48 km (26 mi) to the town of Turner Valley, where oil was first discovered in 1936. Stroll the broad streets typical of so many prairie towns. Shop for authentic western arts. Stop in at the Eau Claire Distillery and pick up some handcrafted spirits.

Five minutes around the bend is the artisan town of Black Diamond, which along with Turner Valley boasts a vibrant arts community. Tour the galleries and shops. Have lunch in a 1950s style diner complete with a retro candy store.

Save room for dessert and continue south 17 km (11 mi) to Longview. Visit one of the town’s bistros or cafés. And no trip here would be complete without some treats from the famous Longview Jerky shop.

Just west of the junction of Hwy 22 and Hwy 540 is the Bar U Ranch National Historic Site. Established in 1882, the ranch was visited by the likes of the Sundance Kid and the Prince of Wales. Take a horse drawn wagon ride and tour the outbuildings in a place that stands in tribute to the ranching history of Western Canada.
ROAD TRIP
CROWSNEST HIGHWAY (HWY 3)
HERITAGE TOUR

Distance: Approx. 95 km (60 mi)

This small slice through southwestern Alberta bursts with big stories to tell. And you’ll love it for its distinct character of resilient people and haunting landscapes.

Founded on coal mining, the five historic communities that make up the Municipality of Crowsnest Pass are situated within a few minutes of each other and are great places to explore, not only for the history, but for the beautiful countryside, where the prairies reach for the mountains.

Come to appreciate the storied past of Bellevue, Hillcrest, Frank, Blairmore and Coleman on a trip that can easily be done in a day.

- From Fort Macleod, head west on the Crowsnest Highway (Hwy 3) for 67 km (42 mi). Just past the junction of the Cowboy Trail (Hwy 22), follow the signs to Lundbreck Falls Provincial Recreation Area for a hike and a picnic where the Crowsnest River takes a 12 m (39 ft) tumble to the canyon below.

- Back on Hwy 3 west, follow the signs about 10 minutes to the Leitch Collieries. Established in 1907, the collieries were one of the largest and most ambitious coal mining operations in the Crowsnest Pass. Stroll around the ruins to see architecture that was ahead of its time or take an interpretive tour.
▶ Head on to Bellevue, the first of the Crowsnest mining towns, built in 1905, on the flat land above the Bellevue Mine. Take the underground tour and learn about the disastrous explosion in 1910 that took the lives of 31 miners.

▶ Just across the highway is Hillcrest, where another tragedy took place: the Hillcrest Mine disaster of 1914. The deaths of 189 men made this the worst mining tragedy in Canadian history.

▶ Just five minutes down the road is Frank, the site of Canada’s most deadly rockslide. In 1903, some 82 million tonnes of rock hurtled down from Turtle Mountain partially burying the town below. You can still see the slide today as you drive along Hwy 3. The Frank Slide Interpretive Centre does an excellent job of telling this compelling story.

▶ Another five minutes brings you to Blairmore. Enjoy the self-guided Historical Walking Tour, which takes you past many heritage houses.

▶ Eight minutes west is Coleman, the last major stop before crossing the Continental Divide into British Columbia. Visit the Crowsnest Museum, walk the Historic Miners’ Path or hike to Star Creek Falls before returning to Fort Macleod.
ROAD TRIP
CANADIAN BADLANDS
DRUMHELLER VALLEY TOUR

Distance: 185 km (90 mi)

The Canadian Badlands have been a fossil hotbed since the 19th century. Some of the most important dinosaur discoveries in the world were unearthed right here.

There are a variety of ways to tour the badlands and many places to see. The Dinosaur Trail is a lovely, looping drive that closely follows both sides of the slow-moving Red Deer River, climbing twice to commanding viewpoints, Horsethief Canyon and Orkney Hill.

This 48 km (29 mi) tour nicely combines the riveting intensity of the Royal Tyrrell Museum in Midland Provincial Park with short walks, a ride on the Bleriot Ferry and all the scenic grandeur of the Drumheller Valley.
From Calgary head north on Hwy 2, then east on Hwy 72, which turns into Hwy 9, taking you to Drumheller, 135 km (84 mi). Here, the World’s Largest Dinosaur greets you at the town’s Visitor Information Centre. Climb up inside and peer out from its jaws for a sweeping view of the badlands.

Head north on the Dinosaur Trail (Hwy 838) for about 10 minutes and follow the signs to the Royal Tyrrell Museum, one of the finest dinosaur museums in the world. You could easily spend a whole day here – more than 35 dinosaur skeletons and fascinating galleries recreate life in the Jurassic and Cretaceous periods.

Back on Hwy 838, continue north about 25 km (16 mi) and cross the Red Deer River on the cable-operated Bleriot Ferry – one of the few left in Alberta. On the other side you’ll find you’re back on the Dinosaur Trail.

Follow it south for a 48 km (30 mi) scenic tour through the Drumheller Valley. Watch for scenic viewpoints such as Horsethief Canyon and Orkney Hills.

Pick up the Hoodoo Trail (Hwy 10) and drive 25 km (15.5 mi) east of Drumheller to the hoodoos site to see these unusual chimneys of rock made up of layers of eroded sandstone and limestone. First Nations believe they house protective spirits.

Take a swaying walk across the Red Deer River on the Rosedale Suspension Bridge. Visit the Atlas Coal Mine National Historic Site and climb up inside the last wooden tipple in the country. See for yourself if these old buildings really are haunted.

Head back along Hwy 10 and connect with Hwy 10X and cross 11 single-lane bridges to the hamlet of Wayne and its historic Last Chance Saloon. Have a cold one – you’ve earned it!
Alberta’s heartland is a multitude of landscapes, from the foothills of the Canadian Rockies in the west to an endless expanse of golden plains and aspen parkland stretching east to the Saskatchewan border. The land is sprinkled with lakes and ponds left by retreating glaciers. The winding Red Deer River plays a leading role in the region’s agricultural bounty, not to mention one of the best places for a paddle on a lazy afternoon.

Long summer days are filled with hiking, biking, riding, fishing, boating and beaches. Winter is prime time for pond hockey, snowshoeing, cross-country skiing, snowmobiling and ice fishing. Be a part of the region’s lively western heritage and pioneering spirit. Join in the celebrations of local history, the Wild West and a famous country music jamboree.

ROAD TRIP

DAVID THOMPSON HIGHWAY (HWY 11)
FOLLOW IN FAMOUS FOOTSTEPS

Distance: 293 km (182 mi)

Take the David Thompson Highway (Hwy 11) – central gateway to the Canadian Rocky Mountains – and follow in the footsteps of one of Canada’s greatest explorers.

In 1799, David Thompson, fur trader, surveyor and map maker, explored this region of Western Canada pursuing his dream of discovering a passage through to the Pacific.

This well-constructed highway is an RVers paradise, with dozens of campgrounds and scenic hikes along the route. Views of the glacier-fed North Saskatchewan River and breathtaking vistas of the front ranges of the Canadian Rockies make this one of the most unforgettable drives in the province.

- Begin in Red Deer, a thriving city in the heart of central Alberta. Head west about 24 km (15 mi) to Sylvan Lake, a popular resort featuring gorgeous sandy beaches in Sylvan Lake Provincial Park where you can enjoy watersports, boating, fishing and golfing.
- Continue on Hwy 11 for 61.6 km (38.3 mi) to Rocky Mountain House National Historic Site. Two hundred years ago, it was the richest fur producing area in the northwest. Thompson made it his home base as he searched for his Pacific passage. You can camp overnight and stay in a Métis trapper’s tent.
- Back on Hwy 11, continue west for 87.2 km (54 mi) to Nordegg – once the site of a thriving coal mining industry. Stop in at the Nordegg Heritage Museum.
- About 15 km (9 mi) southwest of Nordegg, look for a sign-posted gravel road on the right which leads to the spectacular Crescent Falls Provincial Recreation Area in Big Horn Canyon. The hike from the parking lot trailhead to the falls is around 9 km (5.6 mi), round-trip.
Continue southwest for approximately 31 km (19 mi) to stunning Abraham Lake. Hiking here is bucket list material. Take a break at the lovely Aurum Lodge. Stay in winter and photograph the famous frozen bubbles on the lake.

Leaving Abraham Lake, you’ll enter the grasslands of the Kootenay Plains Provincial Recreation Area. Thompson mentions meeting Kootenay Indians on these plains in 1800 to trade for furs. Watch for signage for Siffleur Falls on the south side of the highway. This 8 km (5 mi) round-trip hike takes you to a fantastic view of the falls. Note: not suitable for children.

Only 8 km (5 mi) further west is Whirlpool Point Lookout, providing astonishing views of the North Saskatchewan River as it breaks free of the mountains to flow east.

The David Thompson Highway ends at Saskatchewan River Crossing, and the junction of the Icefields Parkway (Hwy 93) where you can choose to go north to Jasper or south to Banff.
ROAD TRIP

ALBERTA’S ROADSIDE ATTRACTIONS
VISIT THE WORLD’S LARGEST

Distance: 452 km (281 mi)

Every place has its odd and unusual attractions and Alberta is no exception. We’ve put together a whimsical road trip that takes you to some of our best and biggest and beyond. We’re betting you’ve never seen the world’s largest mushroom, sausage, pyrogy or duck. If this is starting to make you hungry, never fear. Just about everywhere we’re taking you, the food for which a town is famous is close at hand.

- Your first stop is at Trochu, about an hour southeast of Red Deer on Hwy 21. You simply can’t miss the World’s Largest Golf Tee. It towers over the Trochu Golf & Country Club. Get in nine holes while you’re there and have lunch at the clubhouse.

- Then head north on Hwy 21 and hang a right at Bashaw to the village of Donalda on Hwy 53, about 130 km (80 mi). Here you will find the World’s Largest Oil Lamp at 12.8 m (42 ft) high and lit at dusk every evening. It stands in tribute to the Donalda & District Museum’s collection of more than 900 kerosene lamps in use from the 1600s to the 1950s.
Continue east on Hwy 53, then north on Hwy 855, and follow Range Road 150 about an hour and a half into Vegreville to see the World's Largest Pysanka (Ukrainian Easter Egg), recognized as a unique achievement in mathematics, architecture and engineering.

Make your way to the Yellowhead Highway (Hwy 16) and head east. You’ll be in Mundare in less than half an hour, home of the World's Largest Sausage, standing 12.8 m (42 ft) tall and built to honour a local sausage maker famous for his Ukrainian garlic sausages.

Head north on Hwy 855 for about 32 km (20 mi) to the village of Andrew, which pays tribute to its duck breeding grounds at Whitford Lake with the World's Largest Mallard Duck, wingspan 7.2 m (23 ft).

Make your way to Hwy 645 east, then north on Hwy 857, then east on Hwy 28 to Vilna, roughly 56 km (35 mi), to see the World's Largest Mushrooms celebrating the mushroom hunting tradition of early Ukrainian settlers. See the giant fungi in – you guessed it – Mushroom Park.

Return to Hwy 28 and head east a half hour to Glendon to see the World's Largest Pyrogy – with a giant fork stuck through it. Your world's largest adventure is now complete.
Edmonton began as a Hudson’s Bay fur trading post in 1795, drawing explorers and settlers from across Europe. Today, Alberta’s capital city is a vibrant reflection of many cultural traditions.

Find evidence of these roots 25 minutes east at the Ukrainian Cultural Heritage Village. North of the city, discover a vibrant Francophone community in a collection of picturesque counties and towns.

If you’re a fan of Edmonton’s endless river valley, continue your love affair with nature at the Clifford E. Lee Nature Sanctuary and Devonian Botanic Garden less than an hour south.

Spend a day watching wildlife or hiking in Cooking Lake-Blackfoot Provincial Recreation Area or at Elk Island National Park, where you can camp under the stars here in the Beaver Hills Dark Sky Preserve.
EDMONTON

Alberta’s capital city is always celebrating something, from arts and culture to food and wine, dragon boats, winter and even accordions. You have more than 60 festivals to choose from, year round.

Enjoy the great outdoors without leaving the city as you explore Edmonton’s river valley, the longest stretch of continuous parkway on the continent. Spend the day at West Edmonton Mall, the largest indoor shopping and entertainment complex in North America, the size of a small city.

Explore the city’s museums and historic sites. Come to the famous farmers’ market in Old Strathcona and visit with local vendors. Wander the galleries and shops along Whyte Avenue and 124 Street, find a funky fusion restaurant and stick around for the night life – live theatre, music and dancing.

EDMONTON IN 24 HOURS

There’s lots to see in Edmonton so start off your first day here by fuelling up early at any number of delectable downtown diners.

Wander over to the city’s civic centre, Sir Winston Churchill Square, a celebration hub for entertainment year round. In summer, shift knights on a giant chess board or watch a special festival. In winter, take a twirl around City Hall’s bustling ice rink. Just next door is the architecturally stunning Art Gallery of Alberta, home to contemporary and historical exhibitions from around the world.

Or if you prefer, a quick transit ride takes you to the Alberta Legislature. The grounds are gorgeous and the tour of the stately sandstone structure is a must.

Time for lunch? Edmonton is brimming with eclectic restaurants, bistros and cafés, with multicultural fusion choices beyond imagining.

Spend the early afternoon getting your hands and minds busy with science at TELUS World of Science Edmonton. Or move from the future to the past at Fort Edmonton Park to learn about the origins of our capital city.

Afterward, find out what’s growing in those big glass pyramids of the Muttart Conservatory, or explore the river valley on a guided Segway tour.

For dinner, head to Whyte Avenue in the funky Old Strathcona district. Historic buildings blend with youthful energy to make this one of Edmonton’s trendiest areas.

For evening enjoyment, take in a play at the Citadel Theatre or a concert at the acoustically brilliant Winspear Centre. If you’re looking for onscreen entertainment, catch a movie at the Princess Theatre, Edmonton’s oldest cinema, then find a cozy spot for a nightcap to end a perfect day.
Inspired by its diverse ethnic heritage and a devotion to food fresh from local farms, Edmonton’s unique take on cuisine has put it on the map of go-to culinary destinations.

Start the morning with a jolt from one of the city’s many indie coffee roasters that are raising the bar for third-wave coffee shops. Have an early lunch or weekend brunch at the café in the Muttart Conservatory where fresh herbs and greens grown on site are part of your meal.

Hike out of the valley into downtown’s historic Warehouse District on 104 Street. Once the heart of Edmonton’s fur industry, century-old brick warehouses are now part of a pedestrian-friendly haven for foodies. In one block alone you’ll find several restaurants, a health food market, coffee shop, chocolatier, bakery bistro, gourmet oil and vinegar retailer, and a wine and cheese store.

On Saturdays, visit City Market Downtown, Alberta’s oldest farmers’ market. In summer, it’s held outdoors with up to 150 vendors featuring farm-fresh produce, locally raised meats and ready to eat meals. In winter, the market moves indoors at Edmonton City Hall.

Wander on your own, or book a tour with Edmonton Food Tours. Get Cooking and Kitchen by Brad also offer courses for aspiring chefs.

Within walking distance is the Arts District, home to a host of ethnically inspired eateries that put new twists on fresh local ingredients. Chinatown is just around the corner.

End the evening wandering trendy 124 Street, jam packed with fine restaurants, bakeries and galleries.
Picture a vast land of massive mountain ranges, boreal forests, sweeping grasslands, sand dunes and far-reaching waterways. A special piece of Canada where the northern lights blaze across the night sky.

In the northeast, fly into Wood Buffalo National Park, the world’s largest dark sky preserve. From Fort McMurray, head out with a guide to a secluded fishing lodge and lakes where the fish practically jump into your boat. Northeast of Edmonton is the Lakeland district, Athabasca, Lac La Biche and the historic routes used by voyageurs and fur traders. And Elk Island National Park is practically in Edmonton’s backyard.

Northwest of Edmonton is Lesser Slave Lake Provincial Park, home to the largest vehicle-accessible lake in Alberta and brimming with outdoor adventures. Farther north and west, discover the Mighty Peace Country. See the newest dinosaur finds near Grande Prairie. Explore Alberta’s northernmost mountain parks for an authentic wildland experience.

ELK ISLAND NATIONAL PARK

Elk Island is Canada’s only completely enclosed national park – and second only to the Serengeti for numbers of hoofed wildlife. From the comfort of your vehicle, watch for the bison, elk, moose, white-tailed and mule deer that freely roam the park. Feel the thrill of seeing them up close in their natural habitat.

Join a park interpreter and learn how 100 years of conservation brought the bison back from the brink of extinction. The endangered trumpeter swan is also protected here.

Camp overnight in the Astotin Lake area and sleep under a zillion stars. If it’s late in the season, you might even see the northern lights. Come back in winter and snowshoe or cross-country ski. All this and less than an hour from Edmonton.

WOOD BUFFALO NATIONAL PARK

If you’ve ever dreamed of a wilderness adventure in the remote Canadian north, Wood Buffalo National Park is calling your name. Spanning 44,807 sq km (17,300 sq mi), this is one of the biggest parks on the planet and the world’s largest dark sky preserve.

This is a vast and wild land of northern boreal plains, strangely compelling karstland riddled with sinkholes, fissures and underground streams, an untamed river delta and – surprise – a salt desert. It is home to incredible numbers of free ranging buffalo and the nesting grounds of the endangered whooping crane and peregrine falcon.

Under a canopy of stars, enjoy the breathtaking beauty of the night skies and the dance of the aurora borealis. No wonder it’s designated a World Heritage Site.

LESSER SLAVE LAKE PROVINCIAL PARK

The sun-sparkled water and endless soft sand beaches of Lesser Slave Lake make this park one of Canada’s top summer destinations. Just 2.5 hours northwest of Edmonton, you’ll find resorts, campgrounds and marinas dotted along its shores. The town of Slave Lake anchors the southeast corner and has everything you need for your stay. Stroll the boardwalk to popular Devonshire Beach.

Explore the amazing Boreal Centre for Bird Conservation, with 557 sq m (6,000 sq ft) of indoor and outdoor exhibits, and a research facility for visiting scientists. Go to Marten Mountain Viewpoint for a spectacular vista or hike through old growth forest to secluded Lily Lake.

The Trans-Canada Trail runs the length of the shore and is used year round for hiking and cross-country skiing.

HIGHLIGHTS

PHILIP J. CURRIE DINOSAUR MUSEUM

In Alberta’s northern badlands lies the recently discovered Pipestone Creek bonebed – a massive gravesite of the Pachyrhinosaurus, a plant-eating dinosaur, dating back 73 million years.

Supporting the ongoing excavation of this site is the Philip J. Currie Dinosaur Museum. Named after the co-founder of the prestigious Royal Tyrrell Museum in Drumheller, this is an international institute for experiential learning and is rapidly becoming a mecca for palaeontologists around the world.

Immerse yourself in this highly interactive environment that uses state-of-the-art technology to flesh out a skeleton at the touch of a button. Take a virtual helicopter tour of the bonebed or sign up for a real life visit. Displays include five newly named dinosaurs never before reconstructed.

WILLMORE WILDERNESS PARK

On the northern border of Jasper National Park lies 4,600 sq km (1,776 sq mi) of unspoiled alpine wilderness – heaven on earth for adventurers looking for an authentic backcountry experience. There is no vehicle access; hike, ski or horseback ride with 750 km (466 mi) of trails to choose from. Outfitters from Hinton and Grande Cache can arrange fully provisioned horsepacking excursions that underscore the region’s fur trading history and show off the scenery. Watch for bears, moose, caribou, wolves and the elusive wolverine. albertaparks.ca/willmore

LAKELAND PROVINCIAL PARK

Excellent fishing, swimming, boating and paddling await on the beautiful waterways of our Lakeland district. With a focus on wilderness experiences, Lakeland Provincial Park features Alberta’s only backcountry canoe circuit. Paddle Kinnaird, Jackson and Blackett lakes. Hike the Shaw Lake Trail used by Indigenous groups and early fur traders. Cross-country ski in winter. Watch for moose, deer, woodland caribou, river otters, beaver, lynx and wolves. albertaparks.ca/lakeland

Deh Cho (pronounced Day-Cho) means big river and is the First Nations’ name for the Mackenzie River. The Deh Cho Trail links the Mackenzie, Liard and Alaska highways in northern Alberta, British Columbia and the Northwest Territories. We’ve used a portion of it to create a multi-day RV camping trip, northern Alberta style.
From Edmonton, go west on the Yellowhead Highway (Hwy 16), then north on Hwy 43 for 181 km (112 mi) to Whitecourt and visit the Forest Interpretive Centre.

After about 85 km (53 mi) is the town of Fox Creek where a quick detour takes you to Smoke Lake Provincial Recreation Area, a great spot for a swim and a picnic. Or keep on Hwy 43 another 108 km (67 mi) and take a break at Williamson Provincial Park.

Continue 95 km (59 mi) to Grande Prairie. Stay overnight at Pipestone Creek Park campgrounds, just 19 km (12 mi) west of Grande Prairie. Spend the next day exploring the nearby Philip J. Currie Dinosaur Museum and tour the largest horned dinosaur bonebed in the world.

In the morning, jog back north on Hwy 2 past Grande Prairie for 89 km (55 mi) to historic Dunvegan where you will cross the Peace River on Alberta’s only suspension bridge. Continue northeast on Hwy 2 for 85 km (53 mi) to Grimshaw and pick up the Deh Cho Trail at Mile Zero of the Mackenzie Highway (Hwy 35).

Head north 83 km (52 mi) to Manning and look for the giant moose statue. Continue about 40 minutes north and stay overnight at Twin Lakes Provincial Recreation Area. There’s a 3 km (1.9 mi) hiking loop to the second tiny lake. Catch some fish for breakfast.

Continue on Hwy 35 north about two hours to High Level, the midway point between Edmonton and Yellowknife. Stop in at the Visitor Information Centre and explore the Mackenzie Crossroads Museum. Enjoy the northern skies at one of the many wilderness campgrounds.

Then loop east on Hwy 58 and south on Hwy 88 for 80 km (50 mi) to Fort Vermilion on the Peace River, along with Fort Chipewyan, the oldest community in Alberta, established in 1788. Because of its prominent role in the fur trade it was designated a National Historic Site in 1968.

Fill up with gas and continue south on Hwy 88 for 406 km (252 mi) and camp in Lesser Slave Lake Provincial Park (see page 72). You’ll want to spend at least a couple of days here – much to explore!

From here, take Hwy 2 southeast to the town of Athabasca where you can paddle and fish on the Athabasca River, hike and watch for wildlife.

It’s 152 km (94.4 mi) south on Hwy 2 back to Edmonton.
So many Alberta adventures, so hard to choose! There is fun to be had in every corner of this province in summer, winter, spring and fall – everything from the great outdoors to the Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth. From hiking, camping, horseback riding and wildlife viewing, to skiing, dog sledding, snowshoeing and gazing at the aurora borealis, your challenge is to stay long enough to fit it all in.

Remember to visit travelalberta.com for more information to plan your Alberta experiences. The following pages also have helpful online links.
Alberta’s infinite variety of landscapes can satisfy any hiker’s wanderlust. Thousands of kilometres of trails beckon for all abilities, from short-easy rambles to classic hikes and multi-day treks. Epic scenery awaits in our protected parks and wildlands. Try heli-hiking in our Canadian Rockies backcountry and discover secluded alpine lakes and mountain meadows where wildflowers and wildlife abound.

Explore the mysterious Canadian Badlands and witness the work of eons of erosion that sculpted this strangely compelling terrain. Discover the silence of a northern boreal forest. Wander through grasslands stretching to the horizon. Our temperate climate is ideal for hiking, from spring through autumn.
CAMPING

Listen to the birdsong and gurgling of a nearby stream as you awaken from a restful sleep in the great outdoors. Poke your sleepy head out and breathe in the fresh scent of the forest. There’s something else on the breeze – pancakes, bacon, coffee and campfire.

Camping is a quintessential Canadian tradition. You can camp almost anywhere in Alberta, from tenting in the backcountry to full-service campsites. Stay in a teepee or a trapper’s tent or try comfort camping, where everything is ready for you on arrival. Or hit the road in a recreational vehicle – bring your own or rent one here.

BOATING & SWIMMING

There’s nothing better than a soft sandy beach by a crystal clear lake on a hot summer day. Alberta has plenty of them, perfect for sunning and water sports. Watch the crazy fly-boarders and give in to temptation. Or rent a paddleboard and try stand-up paddling. Yesterday it was kite surfing and wake boarding. Today, just some good old-fashioned water skiing. It’s summertime. The sun glitters off the water like tiny diamonds. Dive in. Even if it’s just under a beach umbrella and into that book you’ve been waiting to read.
CANOEING & KAYAKING

The only sound is water gently lapping at the side of your boat and trickling off your paddle as you slice through turquoise water. The blissful quiet is broken by fish splashing on the surface and the call of a loon. Paddling on Alberta’s scenic lakes and rivers is a day with nature at its finest.

Learn a traditional mode of transportation essential to Indigenous groups, early explorers and fur traders. Pack a picnic and paddle out to a distant shore or tackle Alberta’s only backcountry canoe circuit. Step up your fitness, step into a kayak and run some whitewater.

WHITEWATER RAFTING

Feel the spray on your face as you paddle madly through seething water. Shoot through narrow canyons, dodge the rocks and swerve around the next bend in the river.

Few experiences get the adrenaline pumping like whitewater rafting in Alberta. Go for an afternoon, or spend a few nights under the stars as you make your way along the course of the river.

Feel the thrill of the rapids in an unspoiled natural setting and keep your eyes open for deer, elk and bears on the riverbanks. There are trips for all skill levels and professional guides who provide everything you need.

GLACIER TOURS

Touch the ice formed by snow that fell 400 years ago.

Discover the Athabasca Glacier, part of the vast Columbia Icefield, formed around 10,000 years ago when most of Western Canada was cloaked in ice. The icefield spans 325 sq km (125 sq mi) and reaches a depth of 360 m (1,180 ft).

Hop on an Ice Explorer bus with giant rubber wheels that takes you right up onto the glacier or go up on foot on a three-hour guided ice walk.

Combine the tour with a stroll along a cliff-edge walkway at the nearby Glacier Skywalk and step out onto a glass observation platform suspended 280 m (919 ft) above the Sunwapta Valley.

CYCLING & MOUNTAIN BIKING

Two wheels will take you places where four wheels could never go. And Alberta is brimming with places – pedal leisurely through an alpine meadow, a boreal forest or on wide paved shoulders under an endless prairie sky.

Cycle urban pathways through gorgeous river valleys. Challenge yourself to some extreme mountain biking or join a Gran Fondo through a national park. Put the Icefields Parkway on your bucket list, one of the most scenic rides in the world.

HORSEBACK RIDING

Go horseback riding in Alberta and learn to ride western style. Discover the nature of the land from the saddle, as the explorers did centuries ago. Ride through an alpine meadow filled with wildflowers in the Canadian Rockies. See the gold of the larch against the green of the pines in autumn.

Explore the foothills and rolling prairies and watch for wildlife. Professional outfitters will tailor an ultimate adventure on horseback to your skills and time, be it a lesson and a two-hour ride, a multi-day horsepacking trip into the backcountry or herding cattle on a working ranch.

WILDLIFE VIEWING

Alberta is teeming with wildlife. Five national parks, more than 250 provincial parks and easily accessible natural areas protect almost 600 species. Watch for Alberta’s all-stars: moose, bison, elk, grizzly and black bears, bighorn sheep and mountain goats. You may even spot the elusive wolf, cougar, wolverine, lynx or bobcat.

And for all you birders, Alberta is the only place in North America where prairie, boreal forest and mountain ecosystems coexist, providing a home to hundreds of species. Intersecting migratory flight paths make spring and fall birdwatching heaven on earth. Watch for flocks of golden eagles in autumn and trumpeter swans in spring.
GOLFING

Imagine a golf course surrounded by towering mountains that meanders past glacier-fed lakes where elk, caribou and bears are regular visitors on the back nine. It exists in Alberta. The Fairmont Jasper Park Lodge golf course is continually ranked one of the best in the world. But it’s just one of many amazing choices, with more than 250 courses spread around the province.

You can tee off in some of the most surreal surroundings on the planet – from the Canadian Rockies to the Canadian Badlands. And if you’re a die-hard duffer, endless twilight in high summer up north means hitting the links until close to midnight.

Hear the soft swish of your skis cutting brand-new lines in the feather-light snow. With each turn, an arc of sun-sparkled crystals sprays up as you fly down the tree-lined slope. The ice glitters on the evergreens against a backdrop of blazing white peaks and baby blue skies. You feel like you’re living a moment from a glossy ski magazine.

In Alberta, the slopes of the Canadian Rockies have the legendary airy powder revered by skiers and boarders worldwide. Go by snowcat or helicopter to the backcountry, where pure virgin runs await. Boarders can also strut their stuff in the terrain parks.
CROSS-COUNTRY SKIING

Savour the pure Alberta air as you glide along a dazzling white trail in the winter sunshine. Breathe in the fragrance of the evergreens and wonder what animals made the fresh sets of tracks crossing your path. The only sounds are the swish of your skis and the occasional birdsong.

Learn to ski at Canmore Nordic Centre Provincial Park, the home of Canada’s national cross-country and biathlon ski teams. Or follow your own path on hundreds of trails, front and backcountry, throughout the province.

SNOWSHOEING

Ever wonder why northern animals like the caribou, hare and lynx have such wide feet? Strap on your snowshoes and you’ll find the answer. This ultra-efficient way to beat the snowdrifts is a winter adventure to be enjoyed by all.

Straddle the Great Divide in the Canadian Rockies and get your picture taken with one snowshoe in Alberta and the other in British Columbia. Hop on a helicopter and fly to the backcountry, then snowshoe to an island on a frozen lake for a gourmet lunch.

There are trails in all of our national and provincial parks. Sign up for an organized outing or make your own tracks. Just pick up your shoes and go where there’s snow.
DOGSLEDDING & SLEIGH RIDES

The dogs surge forward, the sled comes alive and you’re racing across the frozen Alberta landscape as fast as six exuberant canines can pull you. The sensation of speeding across the snow, pulled by a living force, is unlike anything you’ve ever experienced. Stand on the back of the sled and drive your very own team, or snuggle up in the seat and enjoy the ride.

For a mellow experience, settle in for a sleigh ride, watching the horses kick up plumes of snow as they prance through a dreamscape of dazzling white. Canadian winter scenery is spectacular and there’s a special kind of romance when you are tucked into a warm buffalo rug with a loved one, sipping hot chocolate as you glide under starlit skies, sleigh bells ringing.
ICE WALKS & CLIMBING

The deep stillness at the bottom of the frozen canyon is broken only by the sound of boots crunching in the snow. Towering waterfalls plunge down steep rock walls, frozen in place as if frozen in time.

Wander through a maze of colossal pillars of ice and surreal sculptures, backlit in blues and greens. The winter canyons of the Canadian Rockies have to be seen to be believed. Professional Alberta guides provide everything you need – ice cleats, trekking poles, beverages and snacks.

For the more adventurous, the Canadian Rockies boast some of the best and most varied ice climbs in the world, with endless crags, glaciers, icefalls and ice walls.

Advanced climbers will find icy rapture on a winter heli trip, with access to challenging alpine lines and multi-pitch routes.

MORE WINTER FUN

Looking for more ways to play in Alberta’s winter wonderland? Pull on a pair of skates and carve circles on a freshly cleared pond. Whether it’s a mountain lake at midnight or a bustling rink in town, ice skating is ice magic every time.

Revisit the exhilaration of childhood and hurtle down a snow-carpeted hill on a sled or toboggan. Many parks have hills perfect for all ages. Most of our ski resorts also offer snow tubing, with banked sliding lanes and tows to pull you and your inflatable tube back to the top. Or go for the ultimate ride on a bobsleigh or luge with professional drivers at Canada Olympic Park.

If you like to cycle, try fat biking. Mountain bikes with ultra-wide balloon-like tires let you float over snow. Canmore Nordic Centre Provincial Park has 30 km (18 mi) of fat-bike trails, but any path will provide winter thrills.
FOOD & DINING

Close your eyes and savour the flavour explosion of a juicy Alberta steak, grilled to perfection and so tender you can cut it with a fork. Pair it with a robust red wine recommended by your sommelier.

Alberta is famous for our steak, but our dynamic and innovative dining scene offers mouth-watering experiences of all kinds, from eclectic cafés to diners that remind you of good home cooking.

Top chefs create menus that focus on bringing local produce from farm to fork. Dine on wild game, bison, ostrich or elk in a chic contemporary bistro or in the understated elegance of a mountain lodge.

If you like to cook, find out where to get the best ingredients, take a class and gather some recipes, so you can take a taste of Alberta home.

RODEO

Eight seconds is how long a bull rider must stay on the back of a seething 1,800-pound mass of muscle and flying hooves. It can seem like eight hours. Welcome to rodeo, Alberta style.

Professionals come from around the world in July to compete at the annual 10-day Calgary Stampede, testing their skills in roping, riding and barrel racing to win the world’s richest prize purses.

The five-day Canadian Finals Rodeo in Red Deer each November is the biggest indoor pro rodeo in Canada and features the year’s top prize winners. In between, get up close and personal at a small town rodeo where new stars are born every year.

SKY WATCHING

Imagine looking up and seeing a wisp of neon green uncurl slowly across the night sky. The apparition is soon joined by others and together they grow into a bright, pulsating chorus of multicoloured light, waving, melting away and then forming anew.

The aurora borealis is one of the most surreal natural phenomena on earth. Optimal viewing is September through mid-May in northern Alberta and in dark skies around the province.

Lucky us – we have the world’s two largest dark sky preserves – Wood Buffalo and Jasper national parks. Other preserves in Alberta include Beaver Hills, Waterton Lakes and Glacier National Parks, and Cypress Hills. Truthfully, as long as you’re away from an urban centre, you can stargaze just about anywhere in Alberta.

DINOSAURS

Alberta is home to the richest source of dinosaur fossils in the world. Follow the Fossil Trail, which spans 2,500 km (1,553 mi) from northwest to southeast. It’s anchored in the north by the Pipestone Creek bonebeds and the Philip J. Currie Dinosaur Museum near Grande Prairie and continues all the way south to Devil’s Coulee.

Visit Canada’s famed Royal Tyrrell Museum of Palaeontology near Drumheller and see one of the world’s largest displays of full dinosaur skeletons.

Go on a guided authentic archaeological dig at Dinosaur Provincial Park, a World Heritage Site in southern Alberta where many of the planet’s most important discoveries have been made and continue to be unearthed.

Absorb the electric energy as the final minutes tick away. Tens of thousands of people hold their breath in sudden-death overtime. Alberta has two National Hockey League and two Canadian Football League teams, fuelling a heated competition between Edmonton and Calgary. Going to a game when the local teams face off is quite a thrill and gives new meaning to friendly rivalry.

Share the contagious excitement that embodies Alberta’s collective sports spirit. Whether you take in a hockey game, show jumping competition at Spruce Meadows, the Tour of Alberta or a World Cup ski race, you’re sure to see why Albertans love their spectator sports.

TRAINS

There’s something wildly romantic about Canadian train travel. Climb aboard a steam-powered train in Alberta and experience a bygone era. Meet a Mountie, solve a murder mystery and maybe even spy a coyote trotting across a farmer’s field. Watch the sun set, the stars sparkle or take the kids on a magical, imaginary tour to the North Pole.

Perhaps a journey through the Canadian Rocky Mountains on a sleek modern train is more your style. Watch for wildlife from the comfort of a glass-domed observation car as you wind past rushing rivers and rugged mountains in remote wilderness. Enjoy fine dining and white glove service – this is bucket list material.

No matter your choice, you won’t just get somewhere – you’ll enjoy the journey.

Want a bird’s-eye view of the Canadian Rockies? Ride to the top of a mountain on a gondola or tramway and take in the stunning views of the surrounding peaks, turquoise lakes, sparkling rivers and waterfalls, and alpine towns nestled in the valleys below.

Sightseeing in Alberta is easy as there are many ways to see our many sights. Wish you could fly like an eagle? An aerial tour is the next best thing, as you soar over the peaks, glaciers and high alpine meadows of the Canadian Rockies or heli-tour the Canadian Badlands.

Need to stretch your sea legs? Hop on a float plane to a secluded fishing lodge and visit a lake where the fish practically jump into your boat. Alberta has plenty of crystal clear lakes, perfect for sunning or boating. Go on a boat tour, stand at the bow and stare into perfectly turquoise water.

UNIQUE STAYS

A place to stay can be a destination unto itself. Hike or ski into Alberta’s high alpine and settle in at a secluded backcountry lodge. Release your inner cowboy with a stay at a working guest ranch. Watch moose from the back porch of an all-inclusive mountain lodge.

Sleep in a teepee or a trapper’s cabin. Stay in a fairy-tale castle or your own private chalet in the Canadian Rockies or pick a themed hotel room in the city. Whatever your preference, Alberta’s unique choices come with bragging rights.

ABOUT ALBERTA

280+ PROVINCIAL PARKS & RECREATION AREAS
5 NATIONAL PARKS AND 3 ARE WORLD HERITAGE SITES

PARK ENTRY
Park passes are required for entry into any of Canada’s national parks. Buy them at park entrances, or save time and buy online: pc.gc.ca or banfflakelouise.com/trip-planning/parks-pass. Entrance to provincial parks is free.

WILDLIFE
There are 587 species of wildlife. All-stars include elk, moose, bighorn sheep, grizzly bear, bison, cougar and wolf.

WILDLIFE SAFETY
Never attempt to approach, feed or harass any wild animal. When on foot, keep a safe distance – at least 100 m (more than 300 ft). Most animals will avoid you if they can hear you coming. Stay in your vehicle when viewing animals along roadways. Pick up brochures at Visitor Information Centres for safety tips.

WEATHER AND CLIMATE
Average Temperature
Summer: Daytime highs are normally 20 to 25 C (68 to 77 F) but can reach the mid to upper 30s (90s).

Winter: In the coldest months of the year, January and February, daytime temperatures range from -5 to -15 C (23 to 5 F). They can drop as low as -30 to -40 C (-22 to -40 F) for short periods of time.

Precipitation
Annual precipitation in Alberta averages 30-60 cm (12-24 in). In the winter, the ski resorts of the Canadian Rockies can see up to 9 m (30 ft) of snowfall between November and April.

THINGS TO KNOW

WHAT TO PACK
The weather in Alberta can change quickly so it’s best to dress in layers in any season. Warm jackets, boots, scarves, mittens and hats are a must in winter. Bring a hat and sunglasses to provide protection from strong sunlight.

MONEY
Canada’s monetary system is based on dollars and cents. We have one and two dollar coins and no pennies. Cash purchases are rounded up or down to the nearest 5 cents.

Taxes
Alberta is the only province in Canada without a provincial sales tax (PST). The Government of Canada charges a five per cent goods and services tax (GST) on most purchases.

Tipping
The average gratuity in Canada ranges from 15 to 20 per cent and is usually given to food servers, taxi drivers, tour guides, hotel staff and estheticians for good service. Tips or service charges are not usually added to the bill in Canada. It’s up to you how much you give bellhops, doormen, porters and other staff at hotels, airports and railway stations, but generally $1 and up per item is standard.

Banking
Typical bank hours are 9:30-5:00, Monday to Friday, with many open Saturdays as well.

ACCOMMODATION

GETTING HERE

AIR
Arrive from more than 100 cities worldwide via most major airlines and charter companies. International airports: Calgary (YYC), Edmonton (YEG), Fort McMurray (YMM).

CAR
Alberta is accessible from the east and west by two officially designated Trans-Canada routes. Hwy 1 crosses Alberta in the south and Trans-Canada Yellowhead Hwy 16 crosses through central Alberta. Use the Queen Elizabeth II Highway for north-south travel.

BUS
Greyhound Bus Lines, the province’s primary coach operator, has a network of routes across Canada and the United States.

TRAIN
VIA Rail service is available to Edmonton and Jasper. The Rocky Mountaineer runs between Vancouver and Jasper, as well as Banff, Lake Louise and Calgary.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS & ENTRY REQUIREMENTS
International visitors to Canada must carry a valid passport and, if required, a valid visa. An Electronic Travel Authorization (eTA) is a mandatory entry requirement for visa-exempt foreign nationals travelling to Canada by air. For more information, visit cic.gc.ca.

CANADA BORDER SERVICES AGENCY
The Canada Border Services Agency manages Alberta’s border with the United States using domestic laws that govern trade and travel. For an overview of what’s involved when you enter Alberta, including ports of entry, duty-free allowances, summer holiday travel tips and even wait times at border crossings, visit cbsa-asfc.gc.ca.

WEAPONS
Revolvers, pistols, fully automatic firearms and self-defence sprays (e.g. mace, pepper spray) are prohibited entry into Alberta. All other firearms (e.g. hunting rifles, shotguns) must be declared. For more information on the Canadian Firearms Program, call 1-800-731-4000.

FOOD, PLANT & ANIMAL INSPECTIONS
Travellers are required to properly declare any meats, fruits, vegetables, plants, animals and plant or animal products they bring into Alberta.
GETTING AROUND

RENTAL VEHICLE
To rent a car, truck, camper or recreational vehicle you must be at least 21 years old, have a valid driver’s licence and a major credit card. While a minimum age of 21 is required, keep in mind security deposits are much higher for drivers under the age of 25.

DRIVER’S LICENCES
You must have a valid driver’s licence to drive legally in Canada. Your own is valid for up to 12 months. International Driving Permits from your home country are also valid for one year.

AUTO INSURANCE
If you are driving your own vehicle into Alberta, bring vehicle registration forms and a free Canadian Non-Resident Insurance Card from your insurance agent, or the policy itself. If you’re driving a rented car, bring a copy of your rental contract.

BUS
Bus tours, scheduled coach services and shuttle services are available through a number of operators. Every city has easily accessible public transportation.

ROAD REPORTS
Weather, construction and other activities result in different highway conditions across Alberta. For road reports dial 511 or visit 511alberta.ca.

TRAIN
Whether you ride on a scheduled service from Edmonton to Jasper, or embark on a Canadian Rockies adventure aboard a luxury train, we know that you’ll find the journey as remarkable as your final destination.

SPEED LIMITS
On major highways, speed limits average 100 km/h (62 mph). On secondary routes the average is 80 km/h (50 mph) or by posted signage. Motorists passing stopped emergency vehicles or tow trucks on highways must drive at 60 km/h (37 mph), or at the posted speed limit, whichever is slower. Obey posted speed limits within our cities and towns.

SEATBELTS MUST BE WORN AT ALL TIMES AND IT IS AGAINST THE LAW TO USE CELLPHONES OR MOBILE DEVICES WHILE DRIVING.
